

FRANCINE WHITEDUCK

Francine is owner of Whiteduck Resources Inc. a company with over 20 years experience in designing, managing and delivering evaluation and analysis for various organizations in Canada with special expertise in education, business and economic development. Her company provides IT solutions and studies for numerous government departments. Francine owns several small businesses in Canada.

Francine has completed policy development worked at national and international level and has served on various advisory boards including: The Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business, the Economic Renewal Committee, and has been appointed by the International Trade Minister to the Team Canada Board to provide advice in SME matters. She participated in the First Canadian Women's Trade Mission and has been part of the Women Leaders Network, an advisory network linked to the Asian Pacific Economic Community- (APEC). Francine has also completed the first and only comprehensive profile on Aboriginal women entrepreneurs in Canada (1996).

Francine Whiteduck

francine@whiteduck.com